Volunteers at Holy Family Hospital

Annually ,we welcome people from all walks of life coming to grab the chance to work in an array of different roles within different department across the hospital.

Our Hospital receives volunteers whom they are ready to offer their help and time for no remuneration to provide services which benefit patients and visitors throughout our maternity community.

Our volunteers are well-known with being friendly, welcoming and helpful, as it is an absolute must working in this area. It could include anything from welcoming patients and visitors, assisting women to overcome and stress-free the labor pain and at post natal, also facilitate members of the public to the outpatients booking and showing people how to get to departments and various parts of the hospital.

Our multinational volunteers adhere to the hospital's policies

March's Activity

Blankets to our Babies

Elisabeth Siedentopf, 68 years, from Landau/Pfalz in Germany. She has two sons and four grandchildren. Mrs. Siedentopf Knitted the baby ware. When her husband was sick and tied to bed, she sat beside him for hours and took up her needlework. She produced many baby blankets and relaxed while knitting. When she read about the Holy Family Hospital she decided to donate her knit work to HFH. Her husband died, but she keeps on knitting for Bethlehem. "Knitting is happier when you know what for. It relaxes me and I like to make up new patterns. The rests of yarn are good to make some extra baby hats."

Elisabeth Siedentopf is strongly linked the Maltese / Order of Malta. From 1987 until 2009 she was a Diocesan superior of Malteser Hilfsdienst.

Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers

in the world - March 21st

This is the day when we celebrate the motherhood and the maternal bonds relationship. The Management committee hand by hand with the employees of HFH in the occasion of the Mother's Day, they held the Mother's day celebration for all the working mother's at the Hospital. They honored, greeted and wished them a blessed mother's Day.

We wish all mothers around the world and especially those who gave birth at Holy Family Hospital, a blessed and a Happy Mother's Day!

In the name of the management team & staff of HFH, we wish every mother a joyful & Happy Mother's day

A remarkable visit to HFH

A notable visit took place to Holy Family Hospital Bethlehem by Mr. Karel Schwarzenberg, former Czech Minister of Foreign Affairs and current Chairman of Foreign Affairs Committee in the Czech Chamber of Deputies accompanied with Mr. Radek Rubeš representative of the Czech Republic in Ramallah visited the hospital on March 17, 2016. The management committee welcomed our respectable guests, toured the hospital and conducted a presentation about our history, mission and vision as well.

It is significant to mention that our visitors visited the Protantur before coming to the hospital.

A remarkable and inspiring banquet took place as well through it; the management discussed quite a lot of topics concerning possible upcoming tactics.

Visitors at HFH

On the 25th March 2016 we received Mr. Robert , Ms. Anna and Ms. Sophia Torne and Mr. Paul, Ms.. Elaine and Ms. Caroline Vining accompanied with the family of Ms. Michelle Bowe ; Mr. Jim and Cecilia Bowe. They toured the deferent departments of our hospital and were surprise of the high medical care services we offer to our ladies and their infants.
