bethlehem.org www.holyfamilyhospit al-bethlehem.org Saint John the Baptist dies as a martyr. Not a martyr for the faith - because he is not asked to deny it - but a martyr for the truth. He is in fact a "righteous and holy" man (Acts 3:14), put to death for his freedom of speech and his faithfulness to his mandate. "Life only has value if we offer it, if we give it with love, in truth, if we give it to others, in daily life, as a family. Always give it away. If someone takes life for himself, to keep it, like the king in his corruption or the lady with her hatred, or the young girl with her own vanity - a little adolescent, unconscious - life dies, life ends withered, it is of no use" (Homily of Pope Francis during mass in Santa Marta, February 8, 2019).

It is therefore not for nothing that Saint John the Baptist is the patron saint of the Order of Malta. A holy feast in the Latin calendar on June 24, which the hospital did not fail to celebrate.

Our maternity yard, if it is not a place where we offer our lives, even if we must demonstrate a real vocation to devote ourselves to others, it is indeed a place where mothers give birth to beautiful babies, less than a thousand steps away of the place where our Lord Jesus Christ was born. In accordance with the mandate that the Holy Family Hospital has received for almost 40 years, we will continue to provide the best care to all, especially to the poorest... in all situations, regardless of their faith or anything else. This is our mandate, the one we received from

Saint John Baptist Mass

From the earliest Christian times, the faithful started celebrating different holidays and festivals in honor of St. John the Baptist. The holiday of "Birth of St. John" had its origin in the fifth century where it was celebrated in the East and the West six weeks prior to the birth of Jesus on June 24. Among the many customs that are connected to this day is the "St. John's fire", a celebration given significance by the renowned canonist and medieval liturgist William Durandus, who saw in the fire a reference to the "precursor of the Lord who was a burning light", and a sign of that joy and cheer the Archangel Gabriel said St. John would bring to the world. "The Annunciation of the Conception of John" was also an early holiday that dates back to the fourth century.

Holy Family Hospital celebrated Saint John in a different way we visited all the mothers who gave birth in that day and distributed gifts for the babies.

Congratulations

The new building engineer Ms. Rawan Murra gave birth to her Third baby "Christian" on 15th
